KINGSTON, N.Y. -- It was a page out of the New Testament Friday night in Kingston. The Old Dutch Church in the city held their 64th annual Living Nativity.

Actors dressed up for a reenactment of what's called "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

People at the Old Dutch Church say this is the true reason for the Christmas season.

"I think that this is the type of event that really epitomizes what Old Dutch Church does. It's not based on just membership in this church. It's based on people in the community coming and knowing that they have a place to call home," said Robert Sweeney, Ordained Elder of the Old Dutch Reformed Church.

This living nativity is truly a sight to see! They even bring in live animals for the event.
